Business Development Toolkit

Quick Steps

Step 1:

The business plan is the essential road map used to chart your path to success. To maximize your financing opportunities and outline your process for business growth, you will need a business plan.

Resource Agencies:

University of Mary Washington Small Business Development Center

The University of Mary Washington Small Business Development Center (UMW SBDC) serves as a resource center to the small business community. The purpose of the UMW SBDC is to provide recommendations and assistance to small businesses through confidential consultations. Counseling sessions are free and by appointment only.

The following list represents some of the resources that are available through the UMW SBDC Fredericksburg office:

Step 2:

Once your business plan is nearing completion, the process of gathering governmental permits and business licenses begins. A decision must be made on corporate status, a federal and state registration obtained, and taxation documents submitted.

Process for Registering a Business in Virginia

There are several steps needed for satisfying federal, state and city registration requirements.

Virginia State Corporation Commission

State and local registration will vary depending on the business entity type. You must first determine your business entity type.

Office: (804) 371-0058 or (866) 722-2551 (Toll Free)

Search for Available Properties: Property Search

Step 4:

The process moves to local steps that must be fulfilled starting with submitting a business location and obtaining certificate of zoning, occupancy permit and a business license.

Department of Community Planning and Building

Certificate of Zoning/Use

Before occupying a new or existing building, all new businesses or changes to existing uses and businesses must obtain a Certificate of Zoning/Use from the Zoning Administrator in the Department of Community Planning and Building. This form certifies that the proposed use or business is permitted within the zoning district.

Office: (540) 372-1179

Website: Community Planning and Building

Occupancy Permit

Before occupying a building, a certificate of Occupancy Permit must be obtained from the Department of Community Planning and Building.
